

Welcome to the 2022 NYC Walk to Cure Arthritis!

Today's Walk route takes you along Broadway and features many iconic NYC sites.

Historic highlights along the Walk

Beginning at Thomas Paine Park featuring Foley Square

The park is an urban landmark and was named for patriot, author, humanitarian, and political visionary Thomas Paine (1737-1809) and includes Foley Square which is named for famed Tammany Hall District Leader Thomas "Big Tom" Foley (1852-1925).

The Louis J. Lefkowitz State Office Building, designed by William Haurgard, State Architect for the State of NY Home of the Manhattan Marriage Bureau, the NYS Supreme Court & more.

NY County Supreme Court

Home of the highest trial-level court for civil cases in the state court system for NY County
Also frequently seen in many NYC Crime Drama Shows!

Thurgood Marshall United States Courthouse

This classical revival courthouse is home to the US Court of Appeals for the 2nd Circuit and the US District Court for the Southern District of New York

The David N. Dinkins Manhattan Municipal Building

This Beaux Arts building designed by McKim, Mead & White is home to the NYC Dept of Finance, the NY Public Service Commission, Manhattan Borough President, NYC Public Advocate, NYC Comptroller & more.

African Burial Ground National Monument

This sacred site contains the remains of more than 419 Africans buried during the late 17th & 18th centuries, some free and most enslaved.

NYC Bureau of Vital Statistics

Discover your family history here!

New York City Hall is the seat of New York City government, located at the center of City Hall Park in the Civic Center area of Lower Manhattan, between Broadway, Park Row, and Chambers Street.

Proceeding to Broadway: The Canyon of Heroes!

The Canyon of Heroes is the name of over 200 black granite plaques embedded in the sidewalk along Broadway (both sides) every 20-25 feet that commemorate every single ticker tape parade in NYC history. Ticker tape parades began in 1886 and celebrate foreign dignitaries, national accomplishments and winning teams. The most recent ticker tape parade was in 2019 celebrating the Women's US Soccer Team winning the World Cup.

Charging Bull/Bull of Wall Street/Bowling Green Bull is a bronze sculpture symbolizing aggressive financial optimism & prosperity.

Bowling Green, the oldest public park in NYC (designated in 1733)

National Museum of the American Indian (Your Turn Around Point)

(The Smithsonian Institution), is in a Beaux Arts building designed by architect Cass Gilbert and completed in 1907 as the Alexander Hamilton Custom House.

Here also towards the Hudson River to see glimpses of the Statue of Liberty & Battery Park.

Trinity Church and Trinity Church Cemetery

where both Alexander Hamilton and Robert Fulton are buried. Also, the location of the Treasure in the Blockbuster hit National Treasure!

Zuccotti Park (formerly Liberty Plaza Park)
Site of the Occupy Wall Street protest camp

St. Paul's Chapel, the oldest church building in Manhattan (constructed in 1766) and is known as the "The Little Chapel That Stood" after the collapse of the Twin Towers on 9/11.

One World Trade Center- Behind St. Paul's Chapel is a shining beacon for the new Downtown, and a bold addition to the skyline, One World Trade Center is safe, sustainable, and artistically dynamic. Soaring to a symbolic 1,776 feet — it is the Western Hemisphere's tallest building, and already an iconic New York landmark.

Additional points of interest not see from Broadway:

Wall Street: part of an 8-block long street in the Financial District of Lower Manhattan between Broadway (walk route) to South Street and the East River. It is home to the NYSE & the Federal Reserve Bank of NY.

The National 9/11 Memorial and Museum. commemorates the September 11, 2001 attacks and the 1993 World Trade Center bombing.

Stella Adler School of Acting Millennium Park
The King's College & more.....