TIPS TO HOST YOUR ULTIMATE STREAMING EVENT ARE:

To start, you need to decide what your friends and followers will tune into. Streaming doesn't have to be complicated? Show off your skills by hosting a live stream of you baking or playing games

Pick a livestreaming platform like YouTube or Twitch that have lots of resources to help you get started.

Before starting your live stream, it's vital to create a plan. When planning your live session, consider your goals and objectives and any topics or points you want to discuss.

To host a great live stream, you need people to attend! Promote on social media, online communities and add an engaging description to your stream

Be proud that your efforts are helping to grant the most heartfelt wishes of children across the country!
