Fundraising Toolkit

Welcome!

To all Riders, Paceline Pals & Volunteers – you are now a part of the Paceline family. An extra special welcome back to all who have returned to support Paceline once again. At its core, Paceline is about bringing communities together in a collective effort against cancer. We call this ‘giving through participation’ – helping others whilst at the same time doing something good for your own well-being. This toolkit equips you with plenty of tips to ensure you get off to a flying start! Fundraising in this way is intended to be fun and engaging – we encourage you and your donors to embody this spirit. Together, we can cure cancer faster.

Martyn H. Jones
President, Paceline

Why We Fundraise

It's simple, really: to cure cancer. Through Paceline, the community can team together in fun and innovative fundraising for the Georgia Cancer Center at Augusta University to prevent, fight, and cure cancer.

100% of all fundraising supports innovative cancer research at the Georgia Cancer Center. None of the money you raise goes to overhead or operations, so be sure to tell your donors that every dollar they give you goes directly to the cause.

The Georgia Cancer Center

The Georgia Cancer Center's (GCC) mission is to reduce the burden of cancer in the State of Georgia and across the globe through superior care, innovation, and education. The GCC comprises the M. Bert Storey Research Building, the Outpatient Services clinic, the Radiation Oncology Center, and sections of Wellstar MCG Health. Research at the Georgia Cancer Center continues to focus on the most promising pathways for the prevention and treatment of cancer.

Commitments

Each Paceline Rider has a different fundraising goal recommended based on the selected route the Rider has chosen to pursue:

Route Length		Fundraising Goal
Soul City Six Miler		$400.00
Hammer & Nail 25 Miler		$400.00
Mission Metric Century		$600.00
CycleBar Spin Zone		$250.00
Young Adult (14-25)		$250.00

We encourage all riders to exceed their fundraising goals because every dollar raised will go to innovative cancer research. We want to make the most significant impact possible. Aspiring to fundraise more than your assigned goal would inspire your donors. Plus, we want to thank you for exceeding your goals by hooking you up with an invite to the Pacesetter Reception after raising $1,500 by October 1st!

Fundraising Step 1: Getting Started

Immediately after registering for Paceline, you need to customize your rider profile. If you are a team captain, you will need to update your team page to reflect your overall team. Updating your fundraising page is essential because this is where you will tell your story for donors to see. All of this can be found when logged in under My Page. Once you have your page(s) set up, you can begin reaching out to your friends, family, and colleagues for donations.

Fundraising Step 2: Ask

When you are logged into your fundraising Paceline page, under Dashboard, you will see several options to help with your fundraising efforts. Here, we have outlined 3 automated steps to help you fundraise:

1. Make Your Donation: When you donate on your page, it communicates your commitment to the cause. It also sets the donation amount precedent and influences how much the next person is likely to donate.
2. Ask Your Friends: Here, you can ask your friends to donate using some of our tools to help you compose the message and send it out using email, Facebook, Twitter, or even text messages. When it comes to developing the ask for donations, we recommend the following:
 - a. Do a soft launch: Ask the people you know will donate first to build momentum.
 - b. Make the ask personal for you: We all have a reason to ride! Emphasize what Paceline means to you personally. Why have you chosen to participate, and what do you hope to accomplish?
 - c. Make it personal for your donor: While making a general post about raising money can be helpful, you will want to be more targeted with your ask. Direct the asks to specific friends and family using email, Facebook, or Twitter. Personalize the ask to illustrate why supporting cancer research is so important!
3. Thank Your Donors: When someone donates to you online, they will automatically receive an acknowledgment from Paceline. We recommend sending each donor a personal thank you email first, then adding a public call-out on Facebook or Twitter in addition to the personal note.

Sample Rider Letter/Email to Ask for Donations

Did you know that it often takes 3 asks to receive 1 donation? People get busy and often need a reminder. Ask at the beginning of the campaign and then mark your calendar to ask again. Remind people of your goal and fundraising deadline.

While your Paceline account has built-in sample communications that you can customize, below are some examples of additional communications to aid in your fundraising efforts.

Step 3: Fundraise with 10 Weeks of Fundraising Ideas

Week 1

Use your online fundraising page. Personalize your fundraising page and then share the link on all of your social media channels. Ask your friends and family to donate. Add your fundraising link to the signature of your personal and professional email accounts.

Week 2

Write an email about why you are riding and send it out to friends, family members, colleagues, etc. Remember, the bigger your mailing list, the more money you'll raise. Content of email: Fundraising Goal, Fundraising Deadline, Paceline Mission. Share a mission moment with your donors and potential donors.

Week 3

Look into matching-gift programs. Find out if your company has a matching-gifts program and be sure to include a request for company matches to anyone you ask to donate.

Week 4

Tell 10 new people about Paceline. Explain to them why you participate and ask if they will contribute to your fundraising efforts. Ask them to share your efforts with 5 additional people as well.

Week 5

Hold your own fundraising event. Hold your own live or silent auction, host a backyard BBQ, or have an internal company event. Use the DIY Kit with branded signage to ensure people know that proceeds from your event benefit Paceline and the Georgia Cancer Center.

Week 6

Set a goal to raise $1,000 or more. How? It's easier than you think! Let people know your goal and you might be surprised at how quickly they support you. Let them know how important it is to you to reach your goal and keep them updated on your progress!

Week 7

Follow up on your email. Call or send an email reminder to the people you sent the original email to (and anyone you might have forgotten!) Let them know that PaceDay is coming up and you need their help to reach your goal! Share how much you've raised to date and let them know you are still raising money. Remind them of the deadline and create a sense of urgency. Share a mission moment with your donors and potential donors.

Week 8

Host a Brown-Bag Day at work. Have employees/co-workers bring a brown-bag lunch and donate the cost of what they would have spent at the cafeteria or a restaurant to your team. You can provide drinks, dessert, and music to create a fun atmosphere.

Week 9

Follow-up, Follow-up, Follow-up. It can take 3 asks (or more!) to get a Yes. People plan to donate but get busy and need another friendly reminder. Follow-up with your potential donors today. Remind them you have one more week for fundraising, include your goal and current amount raised. Create a sense of urgency and excitement in your donors!

Week 10

Celebrate! It's Ride Week! Share one final reminder on your social media channels. Push to surpass your personal goal or share your team goal. Thank everyone who has donated to date. Share a mission moment with your donors and potential donors.

If you are interested in hosting a DIY fundraising event that you would like Paceline to promote for participation, please email Don Belisle at dbelisle@paceline.org with the event details.

A Final Note on Fundraising

We feel confident you can accomplish your fundraising goals with this toolkit in hand! However, if you still feel stumped about your fundraising plans after reviewing this fundraising toolkit, please give us a call! We want you to be successful in reaching your goals, and sometimes a brief conversation can help brainstorm some fundraising ideas that speak to you. Let us know if you are hosting an event or team fundraiser. We would love to support you!
