

worldvision.ca/global6k

Euclid is washing his hands after school at a water point in the Democratic Republic of Congo.

World Vision®

EVERY STEP YOU TAKE IS ONE THEY WON'T HAVE TO.™

Why 6K? It's the average distance people in the developing world walk for water every day.

When you cross the finish line, you'll help change the lives of women and children by helping to free them from a life spent collecting dirty water.

Register today at worldvision.ca/global6k